Jim Keddy is the executive director of Youth Forward and a consultant to social change organizations. For thirty years Jim has served as a leader in social change efforts in California. He is the former director of PICO California, a statewide association of community organizing efforts, and served as a vice president at The California Endowment, one of the state’s largest charitable foundations. While at The Endowment, he played a primary role in developing the foundation’s youth organizing strategy. He began his work in promoting racial and social justice as a high school and college activist and entered the community organizing field in his early 20’s. He has been a member of several non-profit boards including the boards of The California Endowment, Public Health Advocates and the California Budget and Policy Center. He currently serves on the board of Families Now, a child welfare advocacy organization. He is married to Gina Martinez-Keddy and is the proud father of 2 adult children. He is a worm rancher and a guitar player.
2016 - Prop 64 passed in California - decriminalizing recreational marijuana and personal cultivation.

Reduces the criminal penalties for most marijuana violations to infractions or misdemeanors and permits persons currently serving a sentence to petition for a recall or dismissal of sentence;

Establishes the California Marijuana Tax Fund for all taxes collected, and after funds are distributed for specified purposes, designates a percentage of the remaining funds to be deposited into the following accounts:

- a. Youth Education, Prevention, Early Intervention and Treatment Account (60%);
- b. Environmental Restoration and Protection Account (20%);
- c. State and Local Government Law Enforcement Account (20%)

Factors contributing to high rates of substance use

- Bullying and harassment
- Family conflict and rejection
- Minority stress
- Childhood abuse
- Gender stereotypes
- Peer influence

Strategies to address LGBTQ youth substance use

- Encourage respect for all students
- Identify safe spaces
- Promote school connectedness and safe,
- Ensure that health classes and educational materials include information that is relevant to LGBTQ students
- Implement professional development opportunities
- Promote parent engagement
- Make it easier for students to have access to community-based partners
“Sixty percent (60%) shall be deposited in the Youth Education, Prevention, Early Intervention and Treatment Account, and disbursed by the Controller to the Department of Health Care Services for programs for youth that are designed to educate about and to prevent substance use disorders and to prevent harm from substance use.”

The Department of Health Care services shall enter into inter-agency agreements with the Department of Public Health and the Department of Education to implement and administer these programs.
Background: Local Level

- Cities and counties now have authority to regulate and tax marijuana businesses.
- Sales, cultivation, testing, transportation, distribution, and manufacturing of marijuana can be taxed at the local level if approved by voters.
- Investments of tax revenue in health, youth programs and prevention are clearly aligned with voter intentions.
Options for dedicating marijuana tax and revenue funds to social justice and prevention

Resources from Marijuana taxes and Fees
What you can do.

If tax is already passed

- If allowed a tax is a range, increase tax for dedicated purpose
  Example: City of Santa Cruz increased tax from 7% to 8% for Children's Fund. Done through City Council resolution.
- Have city/county plan and allocation process prioritizes prevention - done through planning process and legislative body resolution.
- Promote fees and development agreements between city/county and businesses dedicating portion of payment to prevention - can be initiated by business or city/county.

If tax is not yet on the ballot

- General Tax 50% vote
  Pass policies and programs for prevention in cannabis plan prior to ballot
- Special tax 2/3 vote
  Dedicate all or portion of tax to prevention

Example: Humboldt County's planning process prioritized mental health services for young children

Outstanding Example - San Joaquin County. 2018 ballot measure to dedicate 50% of revenues to children and youth programs

Prop 64: Guiding Principles

- Programs should build from a positive youth development model that is developmentally appropriate, culturally and linguistically competent, takes a trauma-informed and harm reduction approach, and honors youth choice and voice. Any programs funded serve youth in accordance with their gender identity and must meet a basic level of LGBTQ cultural competency.

- Funding should prioritize communities that were disproportionately impacted by the war on drugs, including communities of color and LGBTQ communities.

- Practices should be built around best available evidence while allowing for innovation and adaptation to local needs and circumstances and the needs of special populations, including LGBTQ youth, youth experiencing homeless, and juvenile justice systems-involved youth.

CA LGBTQ Mental Health Think Tank

Introductory Think Tank Call
Wednesday, February 7 at 2pm
Call in Number: 866-906-7447
Conference Code: 4914724#
Web Conference Link

An informational call for anyone who is interested in joining the CA LGBTQ Mental Health Think Tank. Through quarterly phone calls, we want to learn and share information about what the barriers are to accessing quality, affordable, and affirming care in your communities. Together, we will identify potential solutions, including how to fund LGBTQ mental health programs, making sure counties and/or providers are complying with state laws, and what state or local policy changes are needed.
