State Legislative Updates

Legislative Black Caucus Proposals

- ACA 5 would begin a process to repeal Proposition 209
- ACA 6 would restore voting rights to felons serving parole
- SB 144, from Sen. Holly Mitchell (D-Los Angeles), ends the collection of many administrative fees imposed against people in the criminal justice system.
- AB 1460, from Weber, would make the completion of a three-unit ethnic studies course an undergraduate requirement in the California State University system beginning with graduates in the 2024-25 academic year.
- AB 1835, from Weber, seeks to prevent local education agencies or charter schools from using unspent state education dollars intended to increase and improve services for low-income students for other purposes in a subsequent school year.
- AB 1950, from Assemblywoman Sydney Kamlager-Dove (D-Los Angeles), limits probation to a maximum of one year for misdemeanor offenses and two years for felony offenses.
- AB 1994, from Assemblyman Chris Holden (D-Pasadena), expands access to health-care services to juveniles upon release from a public institution.
- AB 2019, from Holden, increases access to community college courses for students in juvenile court schools and alternative schools.
- AB 2054, from Kamlager, creates a grant pilot program to improve emergency response services for vulnerable populations.
- AB 2405, from Assemblywoman Autumn Burke (D-Marina del Rey), establishes a right to housing for children and families in California effective Jan. 1, 2026.
- AB 3121, from Assemblywoman Weber, would create an eight-member task force to study the impacts of slavery in California and develop proposals for potential reparations.

Advocacy Day

Tuesday, August 18

Please join Equality California on Tuesday, Aug. 18 for the first VIRTUAL LGBTQ+ Advocacy Day where you will lend your voice to help pass critical pro-equality legislation. This event will welcome LGBTQ+ leaders, activists and allies from across California for a day of grassroots political action to raise awareness about critical priorities for the LGBTQ+ community, people living with HIV and the marginalized communities to which we belong.

Federal Policy Update

Proposed HUD Rule Released

The Trump administration is once again attacking LGBTQ people, this time by attempting to undermine the Department of Housing and Urban Development’s protections for transgender people seeking safe shelter.

Trump Administration Memo

• Trump’s proposal is unconstitutional. The constitution says the census counts everyone living in the United States -- every immigrant, every child, every neighbor, every student, everyone -- for purposes of congressional apportionment.
Self Responses End September 30

- Residents have through September 30 to respond to the US Census
- Door-to-door enumeration began in July
